LEMI, from Spa planning to Spa design

Thanks to its unmatched design and reliability of its equipments, LEMI is regarded as one of the benchmark companies at international level in the field of high-end Spa equipments. In order to go even further in its mission of advising and accompanying the professionals of the sector, today LEMI proposes a complete logistics in the field of designing and development of Spa projects.

With this new power of persuasion, LEMI wants to be more than just a benchmark in equipment manufacturer by bringing in its expertise and advice with regards to profitability of areas and optimisation of these in order to facilitate the work of therapists, especially at the level of cabin. Of course, all these parameters vary according to the use of cabin, type of treatment to be provided, professional products that are used and treatment tables and chairs chosen for the area in question.

All this because every time emotion and pragmatism are combined it results in a real profitability of area and undeniable comfort as much for personnel as for clients. LEMI proposes several examples of organisation associated with their investment/ profitability ratio.
